

Firefighter Solar Power and Fire Safety Awareness Program

A Training Seminar for Firefighters
Presented by SolPowered Energy Corporation

Instructor: Denis St. Denis

Cost: $40 per attendee, plus the cost of travel for our instructor (we will provide receipts for hotel and gas – hotel unnecessary if location is 90 minutes driving time from Ottawa)

Minimum 60 attendees.

Program Overview

Following times may be changed within reason to suit your schedule

Registration	8:45 am
Program begins	9:00 am
Complimentary refreshments	10:30 am
Program concludes	12:00 pm

Q & A opportunities will be integrated into the program.

Program Details

- I. What is solar power?
- II. Market trends and expectations
- III. How does the technology work?
- IV. Building construction and weight-bearing capabilities
- V. Background on fire-ground electrical hazards
- VI. Safety guidelines with solar power
 - i. Identifying the system and assessing the hazards
 - ii. Isolating and shutting down system components
 - iii. Working around all system components
 - iv. Ventilation
 - v. Dealing with arc faults
 - vi. Post-fire safety tactics
- VII. Case studies
- VIII. Moving forward with code development

Bring our seminar to your municipality by reserving today.

Please contact us for more details:

Suzanne Cyr, VP Business Development

(613) 454 – 4444 ext. 102 • scyr@solpowered.com